Anderson 320

- Attendance
    - Ehren
    - Sam
    - Majd
    - Tim
    - Stephen
    - Matt
    - Meeeeeee, but I don't matter.
    - Tung
    - Leo, but 3 minutes late. SHAME!
- Past Events
    - Open Lab
        - Yep. It happened. :)
    - Movie Night
        - It was Nightmare before Christmas.
            - Probably should have bumped it an hour later? (so at 9 PM)
                - We'll do this next time.
    - Halloween Board Game Night
        - Some people arrived after everyone else left. (3rd suite).
        - Ok attendance. It wasn't horrible.
            - We went through ¾ of our pizzas.
                - Tim specifically ate 4 slices.
- Matt needs to "Take" "Something" This will be done as soon as he acquires water.
- Sam needed a "snickers". He failed to catch it.
- Future Events
    - Open Lab
        - Yep, it will happen.
    - Video Game Night
        - Yay! Video James!
    - Cookie Decorating
        - Some of you may remember that we're doing a cookie decorating event with AIF, MIF, and DH.
            - This is surprisingly cheap for us.
                - Except for sprinkles, which are expensive.
                - 90 Dollars TOTAL for everyone.
            - There are two options for cooking and times.
                - Douglass Community Kitchen

            - Interfaith Chapel
        - Late November, Early December timeframe.
        - AIF Is MIA, we'll check with them to see if they can do something for this.
    - CIFSGIVING (later)
- Collabs
    - MIF
        - Nominations close this Sunday (today)
        - I'll be picking which suggestions are fun and actually viable50
        - Logistics have been figured out.
            - 20 will be greenlit, in total.
                - 8 have already been chosen.
                    - Nature's Crescendo, Stardew Valley
                    - Flower Man, Deltarune
                    - Undertale, Undertale
                    - Creator, Minecraft
                    - Dragonborn, Skyrim
                    - Enter Pharloom, Silksong
                    - Still Alive, Portal
                    - Gwyn, Lord of Cinder, Dark souls
                - MIF and CIF will both be picking 6 more.
            - Minecraft Intermission music, because that seems like a good idea.
            - Ehren and Stephen will do some arranging, MIF will be pressured into doing it as well.
            - Ehren will go to URCO/URSO, to see if we can get some more woodwinds.
            - 15 will be chosen by ranked choice voting.
        - Sam WILL be playing/singing something
            - If it's a trump voice, Ehren will "take care" of him.
            - Quite frankly, it's disgusting. I can't believe they would make me participate even though I'm the best singer. You know, someone came up to me the other day and they said "sir you have the best voice you should sing at eastman" and I said thank you very much but I have to keep playing Minecraft on my trump phone.
    - CSUG
        - They officially informed us that Dandyhacks has moved to January
            - Whoah. Officially and everything.
        - I have been told January 22-24
            - "Supposedly" to these dates.
            - Do we want to move the Git seminar off to Jan, then have another this semester on something else? - Yes
                - R TECH SEMINAR:D -Stephen
                    - This might be better for next semester.

        - Web Hosting Tech Seminar?
            - Can do things based off of what Fenway did many moons ago.
            - This might be especially good given the CIF Web Hosting Feature we've brought back!
        - 6 PM, Thursday November 12th.
            - What rooms can Leo reserve?
    - We are stealing Rory Back.
- Money Update
    - How much can CIF pay for the Cookie Decorating
        - We'll try to get RHA to cover it.
        - If they don't cover it, we can cover at least a quarter
            - Don't worry about it, Matt says.
    - Reimbursements are starting to be processed.
        - Matt needs "data" for "reasons"
        - Checks should be cut at some point in the near future.
- TechnomalogicallymagicallyallyamagimagicaltechnolomagicalmysticallytechnologicalmysticalmagicaltechmologicaltranscendentlysupernaturaltechnologymolyMmmmbeanstechnologybrotherprinterneedstodieologysticalocialbrothermakessharpenersAGICALology updates
    - HP Printer is a thing
        - It was 3 dollars.
            - 99.5% discount!
        - See below.
    - Panel
    - External User Webpages,
    - Student Org stuffs
        - SOAP!
        - Mainly printing.
            - We're trying to open up printing to Student Orgs, undercutting the university for those purposes.
        - Logistics of printing…
            - Over 40 pages, it goes into a queue, so as to prioritize member printing.
            - Student Orgs will be able to print to the new one IF they select premium at an upcharge.
        - Old printers will be kept as backups.
    - Hooking up with the Cage
        - Stephen's idea? I have no idea what this is…
    - Potential Attendance System Overhaul?
    - The new CPU Cooler.
        - It has not shipped yet
        - On November 3rd, if it hasn't been shipped, Sam will get reimbursed.
- Constitution (joy)

    - I turned the constitution into MJ on Thursday
        - Yep. It has been done. The process, thus ,has been started.
            - Ryan and Ed were also E-Mailed.
        - “The ball is in my court” -MJ
        - He’s taking a week to review it and still thinks it will be ready to ratify by the 15th
            - He is very adamant that it will be done by this point in time.
    - MIF and AIF have not turned in their constitutions as of yet. I presume DH probably hasn’t either, but we’ll see.
    - E4E revisions, since apparently there weren’t enough SMART goals in it.
        - Ehren is not SMART enough.
- CIFSgiving is coming up!
    - We need to create a spreadsheet.
        - Every Member must contribute something
            - Whether it be homemade, something bought from the pit 20 minutes before the event, or by siphoning forks from the pit over a period of multiple months.
            - We need to know how many people will need to use the kitchen.
                - Since the kitchen is small, and will need to be in the oven for a long time.
            - We also need to know allergen warnings.
        - Prefill a line for silverware, napkins, turkey, etc.
        - Stephen has made it, and it is here.
            - CIFsgiving 2026
    - Remember that I have a car, and can contribute to helping get stuff!
        - This will be nice for turkey purposes.
    - Start planning
        - Send out a spreadsheet of who is bringing what tonight at
- Ryan is leaving :(
    - We should do something for him!
        - Invite him to Boar’s Head (Host him)
        - Coordinate with MIF/DH for a party.
        - Perhaps give him a gift?
        - Give him the “CIF certificate of cool”
            - “CIF Trophy of cool”
    - We’ll miss him : (
    - Ed/MJ will probably have to deal with Ryan’s job in the meantime.
        - We’ll see how much will be MJ, and how much will be Ed.
        - We’ll also see how long it will be before someone is hired in his place.
            - Knowing HR, it will be a while…
- Participation points…
    - We should send out E-Mails next week?
    - A few people should be
- CSH reached out

        - They had the exact same idea that we had!
        - CSH is our equivalent at RIT.
        - The idea would be that we would tour their space, they would tour ours, etc.
            - This would be quite fun, but we will have to figure out logistics.
