Board Meeting!
October 25th, 2026
Anderson 310

- Attendance
    - Ehren
    - Leo
    - Sam
    - Tim
    - Matt
    - Stephen (But he's late… FOR SHAME!) ☹️
    - Majd?
    - Me, but I don't matter anyways.
- Everyone is "Calm" and "Ready to go"
- Past Events
    - Open Lab
        - Yep. It happened.
    - Movie Night
        - It happened. It would really be lovely if the CIF Laptop doesn't go to the lock screen every 5 minutes…
        - The FNAF II movie was kind of just… bad.
            - : (
                - Let's pick a better movie next time.
        - Decent attendance, which was good.
        - We should definitely do more movie nights in the future.
            - Super Mario Galaxy?
            - Nightmare before Christmas? (On Friday?)
                - Yes to this one, This Friday, at 8 PM.
                    - YAY MOVIE! :)
- Future Events
    - Open Lab
        - Yep, it will happen.
    - Halloween Board Game Night
        - It's going into CCC.
        - We can get food, but it will be a hot second before reimbursement, because ResLife, but alas.
        - Food?
            - Pizza would be really nice.
            - Candy? (But this is expensive)
                - Let's make our own Candy!
                - (Realistically, we could grab a mix from Wegmans)

        - Or costco, for that matter.
- Collabs
    - MIF
        - Nominations are underway.
        - Already have dozens of suggestions
        - Most popular suggestions include anything Minecraft, Deltarune, Hollow Knight, and Gourmet Race from Kirby: Super Star
            - Bad Apple was even suggested! :)
        - You all should fill out the form
            - Certain people have “Opinions”, and they should “voice” them.
        - Ehren will talk with MIF’s President, but the form will probably be kept open until November,
            - We’ll split the responses in half between us and MIF, and see which ones we like the best from that pile.
            - Between us and MIF, we can axe songs that we both don’t want to do, for either vibes, or any other reason for that matter.
    - CSUG
        - No updates
            - Shocker.
            - Ehren will E-Mail them this week.
    - CUBESAT
        - Mr Cubesat is not here.
        - We don’t think it’s happening this semester, but we’ll ask Stephen.
            - “Probably not” –Stephen
- Membership applications
    - None
- Money Update
    - Has the cash been turned in yet?
        - No.
    - Matt will crash into his office with multiple “cars” one day, to get his attention.
    - If you see Ryan, tell him to E-Mail Matt.
    - We want to be reimbursed for stuff.
- TechnomalogicallymagicallyallyamagimagicaltechnolomagicalmysticallytechnologicalmysticalmagicaltechmologicaltranscendentlysupernaturaltechnologymolyMmmmbeanstechnologybrotherprinterneedstodieologysticalocialbrothermakessharpenersAGICALology updates
    - Merlin is an abomination against all that is holy
        - Merlin II will be a GPU node for Roundtable
        - Holes were drilled, rivets broken, drills destroyed, and other such “fun”.
        - The AIO, unfortunately, died, but a new air cooler is on it’s way.
    - JIM
        - We need to print a gear, and JIM has not gotten back to us yet.
    - ED

        - Ed (And his friend) donated an apple IIc+ to CIF. It works, barring a singular gear that needs to be manufactured, or purchased.
    - IT has ghosted us (shocker)
        - On multiple levels!
            - On the Debian mirror that they "like"
            - Or the delegate E-Mails, for that matter.
        - Oh, and also PowerBI. That is also broken still.
            - They're "working on it".
    - A bunch of pages are being standardized, to use roughly the same CSS (Basically anything user-facing, outside of the main website).
        - It's been… special.
    - Printing. It's changed, so we should probably mention the specifics here.
    - Gatekeeper!
        - Stephen is working on a rewrite in bash, current band-aid solution is working
- Constitution (joy)
    - MJ got the template to me and its near identical
        - There are actually some changes but nothing major
            - Only really some minor word changes.
    - MJ's Optimistic Timeline
        - A draft given to him before the end of the month.
        - Comments made, and feedback given within 2 weeks.
        - Changes made within two weeks.
        - Approval on their end given soon thereafter,
        - Then, an asynchronous vote over a period of 3 weeks for the ratification process.
    - I promised to get a semi-final draft to him by the end of the month.
        - This is Ehren's job.
    - So we need to decide what we are doing for disciplinary stuff
        - I need DETAILS
            - And details, we shall give
                - All of us who are "present", namely.
            - "Community Standards Hearing" procedure, with multiple parties, who can decide consequences within their power to
                - "Please be friends"
                - Participation point negatives, on a per-infraction basis.
                - This will be mostly the same as the present disciplinary hearing system, but with very explicit what can be done as negatives.
                - Community Collaboration "Restorative Justice"
                    - "A unique participation point opportunity"
    - MJ thinks everything will be complete by November 15th
        - Play "Dream On" by Aerosmith
        - Sure. I "believe" ResLife and MJ.

- CIFsgiving is a only a month away!
  - Planning should probably commence fairly soon.
  - Turkey and stuff can wait a little while (two weeks).
  - We should create a form for what people are doing, and send it out next week.
